

Maine Working Together
WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT SYSTEM

FAMILY ENGAGEMENT & EMPLOYMENT SUCCESS ONLINE TRAINING

Do you still need professional development hours for 2024?

Enroll in this free 2-hour online training and automatically receive your letter of completion when you have finished all the work! People with disabilities often have highly involved families and caregivers in their lives. This online course will address ways to include families in the employment development process while continuing to maintain a focus on self-determination and person-centered planning. The course will be available 24/7 during the month of November so you can log in at your convenience and complete the work. We will leave registration open until November 30 for easy enrollment. The course has 2 hours' worth of content, and you will receive a letter of completion which can be used for educator professional credits and employment staff professional development hours. This course is appropriate for educators, employment specialists, career planners and job coaches who assists individuals with disabilities to find and maintain jobs in the community.

Date: November 1-30, 2024

Cost: FREE

Questions? Contact Lara Enein at Lara.enein@umb.edu

REGISTER for the training

Funded by the Maine Department of Education, Maine Department of Labor, and Maine Department of Health and Human Services, in partnership with the Institute for Community Inclusion at UMass Boston.

www.MaineWorkingTogether.org